About the company

In 1994 Mr. Ghanim Al-Romaihi founded Almutasaliq Trading Center, a company that is specialized in importing best quality saffron and fanciest dates. The company grew fast to become a leader in distributing and importing coffee, dates, teas, and natural refined honey. Recently the company started working together with an exclusive Turkish sponsor to make and circulate natural jams.

We also have a factory to roast, grind, filling, and packing coffee as well as packaging honey and stuffing dates with the best quality of nuts and dried fruits in addition to packing jams in all sizes packages. We can also work for our customers to make products under the name of their company.

Almutasaliq Trading Center main office is located in Gharafa Mart Complex, and from this location our agents distribute the products to our customers. We are proud to be a company working under a Qatari management and we aim to develop and be creative.
